2014 USAMA Grand Internationals Seminar Instructors

Bill "Superfoot" Wallace Seminar on Sunday:
Improve your kicking ability & skills with the best!

Bill "Superfoot" Wallace retired as the undefeated Professional Karate Association (PKA) Middleweight Champion after defeating Bill Biggs in a 12-round bout in June 1980. The victory, 23rd straight, signaled the end to an illustrious 15-year career in tournament and full contact fighting. Known to the karate world simply as "Superfoot," symbolic of his awesome left leg, which was once clocked in excess of 60 mph, He used his foot as others would use their hands, faking opponents with two or three rapid fake kicks and following with one solid technique. His power is amazing, his precision astounding. Attend his seminar and learn his training techniques to be an awesome kicker. There will be time at the end of the seminar for photos and autographs.

Fumio Demura Seminar on Sunday:

Gain insight into the practical applications of your forms and movements with Fumio Demura! Stunt double for Pat Morita in the Karate Kid movies, Demura Sensei has enjoyed his various roles in many movies and applying his skills. A Shito Ryu stylist, he was Japan's 1961 National Kumite Champion and has taught seminars in various aspects of the martial arts all over the world. His seminar is geared for all ages, ranks and levels.

Jody Paul Seminar on Sunday:

Learn a "no-sweat" approach to self defense using wrist locks and pressure points that even "bring the big guys down," with Jody Paul! Paul Sensei is a Seidokan Motobu-Ryu stylist under Master Uehara and Master Toma. He is a former United States Navy Seal and began his martial arts training while stationed in the orient. He will share Toide, or "Taking of the hands" which can be applied to any size opponent using pain control without injury. All ages and levels of practitioners enjoy his seminars and are able to apply new skills.

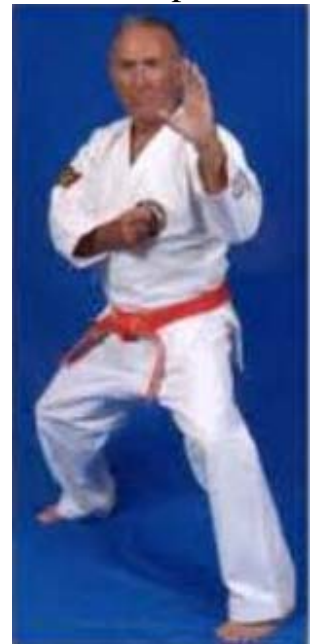

More USAMA Grand Internationals Seminar Instructors!

C. Bruce Heilman & Ann-Marie Heilman (2) Seminars on Sunday: Learn Weapons Applications and instill realism in your Weapons Form! Work bunkai (practical applications - blocks, disarms, and takedowns) represented by various techniques in your bo, tunfa, and sai katas. Heilman Sensei, and his wife, Ann-Marie Heilman, trained in Okinawa Kenpo Kobudo and are direct students of the late Seikichi Odo and continue to instill his teachings and inspirations. And Enjoy the realism of working the Two-Person Form, Bo Bo (Bo versus Bo) in a 2nd Seminar! There is nothing like working a kata with another person where you have to block or else get hit; it brings a whole new understanding to having effective techniques. Bring your banger bo and learn the kata as well as practical applications which can be applied in any bo Form.

Robert Bowles Seminar on Sunday:

Improve body movement in all aspects of your training! Learn to take an angle in sparring to avoid and then counter their attack. An all-around, versatile competitor, Bowles Sensei made history by winning the Triple Crown (Kata, Kumite, & Weapons) at the 1973 US Karate Association Grand Nationals! He is a six-time World Champion and represented the U.S. on seven different world tours. Bowles Sensei is a direct student of the late Robert A. Trias and was personally appointed Chief Instructor of the Shuri-Ryu system.

Tim VanDenover Seminar on Friday:

FREE Kombat Kenjutsu (Chanbara) Seminar on Friday! Learn Ring Strategy and gain confidence in your technique to apply in competition this afternoon! This padded sword fighting has taken off in popularity. It teaches timing, distance, and to use your instincts. VanDenover Sensei competed at the 25th World Championships in Yokohama, Japan and has received rank under Japanese Chanbara creator, Tanabe Tetsundo. This safe way to practice combat "swordplay" is fun and challenging for all ages.

Eli Guzman Seminar on Friday!

FREE Take Down Sparring Seminar on Friday! Get more familiar with allowable techniques in this combination event of sparring, grappling, Judo and Jiu Jitsu! Guzman Sensei is our Take Down Sparring stylehead and its Chief Referee. He will share techniques he has used in competition and help you to gain control and dominate the match. Participants may wear their uniform, or mid-thigh shorts or longer, MMA shorts or yoga pant; and Rash Guard or T-shirt. Women must also wear sport bra. Men must wear groin protection.
